

GOG AWARDS 2021 PRIX GOG

About the GOG Awards

Public art galleries and art museums are an integral part of Canada's visual arts sector and hold a key role in Canada's economy; every year 99% of Canadians participate in arts, culture, and heritage in some way. Now more than ever, our cultural sector needs to be celebrated and honoured.

Established in 1977, the GOG Awards were made to highlight the continued excellence, innovation, and importance of the public art galleries, art museums, art centres, and art organizations in Ontario. Now in its 44th edition, the GOG Awards is the most credited awards program of any arts service organization, and is one of our most important and signature events.

This year GOG received 35 nominations from 21 art galleries across 15 cities throughout the province. GOG members are eligible to submit nominations for the GOG Awards. These nominations are assessed by a jury of their peers with no organizations or individual nominations in competition for the 2021 GOG Awards.

The GOG Awards acknowledges both institutions and individuals and recognizes artistic merit, excellence, and outstanding achievement in ten categories. However, due to the COVID-19 pandemic and a virtual ceremony, we will be acknowledging excellence and innovation in Exhibitions, Public Programs, and Lifetime Achievement.

In 2021, the GOG Awards continue to be instrumental in educating the public about the importance of Ontario's public art galleries as essential cultural resources and institutions.

Virtual Awards Ceremony

6:00 PM – 7:30 PM (EST)
November 29, 2021

Letter from the GOG President

On behalf of the Board of Directors and the staff of the Galleries Ontario Galleries, it is my pleasure to welcome you to the 44th GOG Awards.

Annually, the GOG Awards recognize the excellence and innovation of the Visual Arts sector in Ontario. The awards ceremony is an occasion to celebrate Canadian artists, working with brilliant arts professionals and visionary galleries across our province.

In 2020 and 2021, Ontario's regional cultural organizations continued their work, even in the darkest days of the pandemic. Despite the many uncertainties, our member galleries prevailed by embracing new ways of disseminating their work to the public and remained connected and relevant to their communities and beyond. As an artist, working alone in my studio throughout waves of frighteningly negative messaging, like the many galleries with which I collaborate, it seems to me that our visions and missions were never more important!

Last year GOG also had an identity shift that represents our desire to amplify the strength and clarity of our association's brand to better reflect our aspiration for a more connected sector, provincially and nationally, and to highlight the importance of investment in digital resources for our collective future.

In this 44th edition of the Awards, we not only recognize the professional excellence of our industry, but celebrate the resilience of our entire sector. We are grateful for the thoughtful and critical evaluation by the Awards Jurors, Nadia Kurd, Vince Rozario, and Clayton Windatt — all highly respected peers in our field. The jurors reviewed 35 nominations from 21 member organizations, coming from 15 municipalities in Ontario: Barrie, Burlington, Hamilton, Kingston, Kitchener, Kleinburg, London, Markham, Mississauga, Oakville, Oshawa, Ottawa, Owen Sound, Thunder Bay, Toronto, Windsor, and Woodstock.

The jurors awarded four Exhibition of the Year awards (for budgets over $50,000, over $20,000, under $20,000, and under $10,000), a Public Program Award, and a Lifetime Achievement Award.

On behalf of the Galleries Ontario Galleries, we congratulate the 2021 Award recipients. We thank all members for their submissions, as well as the many individuals whose work has supported the nominated and award-winning projects and initiatives celebrated tonight. Thank you to the visionary Zainub Verjee and her phenomenal staff at GOG for their unwavering commitment to this signature annual program, and for the incredible work they accomplish for, and on behalf of the visual arts sector.

Message from the GOG Executive Director

Dear Friends, I am delighted to extend a warm welcome to you for the 44th annual GOG Awards.

Since 1977, the Ontario Association of Art Galleries Awards has recognized excellence and celebrates the significance of Ontario's public art galleries.

This year our event is once again virtual and smaller due to the pandemic. We nevertheless are committed to elevating and adding value to the Awards. We recognize they are one of the sector's greatest assets and highly coveted by the membership. Awards reflect the merit and the shifts in the sector to which we respond and in the coming years we will continue to grow the Awards accordingly.

GOG has taken the lead to ensure that the right conversations are held, stakeholders are engaged, and collectively a new path forward is forged. As a strong voice for advocating the public Art galleries to policymakers and other stakeholders, GOG has steadfastly been at the forefront on issues that confront the sector at various fora. We look forward to working with the Hon. Minister Pablo Rodriguez towards a new Museum policy.

With an explicit desire to enrich the lives of Ontarians and Canadians through art, we share an unbounded optimism in our service to Ontario's public art galleries' impact and relevance to the people of Ontario and Canada.

I am confident that members, donors, patrons, funders, and future leaders will continue to support our association towards recovery and a sustainable future. I invite you all to make a donation. Let's make the next 50 years count!

I congratulate all the winners and thank the jury members, board, supporters, staff, and volunteers in making this 44th edition of GOG Awards successful.

Sincerely,

Zainub Verjee

Message from the Governor General on the occasion of the Galleries Ontario / Ontario Galleries (GOG) Awards

Art and art exhibitions not only allow us to view striking, thought-provoking, original works, they also tell a story, bring us along on a journey of discovery. We see unique points of view displayed through the eyes of the artist, gallery, museum and curator.

All of the recipients of this year's GOG Awards have connected us through art, bridging time, language and cultures. Through their work, they have inspired art lovers to consider the context of art, alongside the art itself, to give audiences a singular experience.

Congratulations to all of you and thank you for sharing your skills, talent and art with Canadians each and every year.

About GOG

In 2020, the Ontario Association of Art Galleries (OAAG) announced its rebrand as Galleries Ontario / Ontario Galleries (GOG). The new identity, logo, and website reflect the modernization and adaptability of the organization. Although the appearance changed, GOG continues to provide advocacy, professional development, and networking services to the membership.

Galleries Ontario / Ontario Galleries (GOG) was founded in 1968 as a means to offer a collective voice for public art galleries in Ontario. The 11 founding members wanted to encourage a closer cooperation and understanding between funders and art galleries in order to assist the development of the visual arts sector in the province. Apart from serving as an advisory body in matters of professional interest, one of GOG's key objectives was to promote high standards of excellence and uniform methods in the care and presentation of works of art. GOG incorporated as a non-profit organization in 1970 when the Secretariat office opened in Toronto.

GOG fosters a sustainable, healthy, diverse, public art gallery sector to further the visual arts as a key component of the cultural life of the province. We serve communities in every region and our membership is diverse. From rural institutions in North Bay, to large institutions in Toronto, we serve Ontario public art galleries through our three pillars of service: advocacy, professional development, and network-building. GOG runs numerous professional development workshops throughout the year and in the past has developed art symposiums, mentorship programs and is one of the founders of the Provincial Arts Service Organization, a bilingual coalition to promote and advocate arts and culture in Ontario.

“Investing in GOG is investing in Ontario’s art galleries. GOG fosters a sustainable, healthy, diverse public art gallery sector to further the visual arts as a key component of the cultural life of the province.”

Supporting GOG

GOG directs donations to our charitable services and programs, which include advocacy, network building, professional development workshops and symposia, and opportunities to recognize excellence in the sector.

Supporters of GOG are directly supporting the growth and success of Ontario art galleries and the professionals who are essential to operation.
